

Newsletter Issue 5/2024

Water back on the EU priority agenda

21 EU environment ministers ask the EU Commission for water to be a “top priority” while Ursula von der Leyen puts water in her guidance 2024-2029

In July 2024, 21 European environment ministers wrote to the European Commission to boost water security and resilience through a comprehensive approach. The newly elected President of the Commission has put water resilience back on the EU priorities.

EWA NEWS present you these developments and links to the underlying documents.